

Saturday Islamic School

A supported project of the East London Mosque
82 – 92 Whitechapel Road, London E1 1JX

email. admin@saturdayislamicschool.co.uk
www.saturdayislamicschool.co.uk

السلام عليكم

Saturday Islamic School (SIS) is a supported project of the East London Mosque and has been providing quality Islamic education to girls and boys aged 6 to 16 years since 1996.

Currently SIS has four branches in Tower Hamlets and staff will be deployed at one of these branches based on needs (post code inside the brackets):

- Mulberry Academy Shoreditch (E2 6NW)
- Bow School - near Bromley by Bow (E3 2QE)
- London Muslim Centre & Maryam Centre (E1 1JX)
- Mulberry Stepney Green School (E1 4SD)

The usual school hours are 9:30 to 3:00 PM on Saturdays only. The term dates are similar to mainstream schools with the exception of no half-terms.

SIS emphasises on social education, learning through play, and inter-active activities. Children are taught using the English language. All staff members are required to have an enhanced DBS disclosure.

Thank you for showing an interest in teaching at SIS. The opportunity to teach children about Islam is a rewarding challenge. We hope that you will consider this challenge seriously and submit a strong application, insha Allah.

Jobs must be applied for using the SIS application form as CVs will not be accepted.

Please clearly state the post for which you are interested on the application form in the space provided.

Closing date for submission of completed applications:
Thursday 15 August 2024 by 12:30 PM.

Only short-listed candidates will be informed and invited to an interview, insha Allah.

Saturday Islamic School

Job Description & Selection Criteria

Designation:	Teacher for Arabic Language (Arabic language to be taught to GCSE equivalent)
Line Manger:	Branch In-Charge/ Headteacher
Contract:	1 year (self-employed), from September 2024
Salary:	£38.50 to £46.75 per teaching day depending on qualifications and experience

Main duties

- To teach children to learn about Islam and provide them with enthusiasm and inspiration to be a better Muslim.
- To help children with the development of positive behaviour and attitude by being a good role model and a source of support. Also to allow children to learn from their mistakes with care and kindness.
- To teach Arabic language to children aged 6 to 16.
- To plan lessons and assess learning to ensure that the quality of teaching and learning is consistently good or better.
- Work with parents as active partners, and provide parents with verbal and written reports of their children's achievement and progress.
- Manage children's learning and behaviour following the school's policy and procedures.
- Participate in regular in-service training and work as a part of a team.

Qualifications

- GCSE or A Level in Arabic Language is essential, a degree in Arabic language is desirable.
- Good further/higher education, preferably in the UK.

Selection Criteria

- A commitment to contribute in developing the next generation of Muslims in the UK.
- Teaching qualifications and/or experience of teaching children in similar setting.
- Ability to communicate and interact with children using the English language.
- Experience of working with children in similar environment, particularly experience of teaching children about Islam in the UK.
- Knowledge and understanding of how children learn, and how to support children's learning.
- Good knowledge of teaching Arabic language and Qur'an.
- Able to work on Saturdays between the hours of 09:30 - 15:00 (term time only).

Saturday Islamic School

Job Description & Selection Criteria

Designation:	Teacher for Qur'an
Line Manger:	Branch in-Charge/ Headteacher
Contract:	1 year (self-employed), from September 2024
Salary:	£38.50 to £46.75 per teaching day depending on qualifications and experience

Main duties

- To teach children to learn about Islam and provide them with enthusiasm and inspiration to be a better Muslim.
- To help children with the development of positive behaviour and attitude by being a good role model and a source of support. Also to allow children to learn from their mistakes with care and kindness.
- To teach Qur'an to children aged 6 to 16 years.
- To plan lessons and assess learning to ensure that the quality of teaching and learning is consistently good or better.
- Work with parents as active partners, and provide parents with verbal and written reports of their children's achievement and progress.
- Manage children's learning and behaviour following the school's policy and procedures.
- Participate in regular in-service training and work as a part of a team.

Qualifications

- Completed formal studies in Qur'an recitation and memorisation.
- GCSE and A Level, and good further/higher education, preferably in the UK.

Selection Criteria

- A commitment to contribute in developing the next generation of Muslims in the UK.
- QTS or relevant qualification to teach the stated age group.
- Ability to communicate and interact with children using the English language.
- Experience of working with children in similar environment, particularly experience of teaching children in the UK.
- Knowledge and understanding of how children learn, and how to support children's learning.
- Good knowledge of teaching Qur'an and Primary Arabic.
- Able to work on Saturdays between the hours of 09:30 - 15:00 (term time only).