السلام عليكم ورحمة الله وبركاته

Dear Parents

This is to inform you that your child will be taught about 'growing up' over the next few weeks. The main aim of the sessions would be to alert and educate children about physical and emotional changes that they are likely to face during puberty. Children will also be taught about their responsibilities as they become 'balegh'.

Boys and girls would be taught separately. This would be a part of their Islamic Studies lesson.

You will need to contribute to this learning. There are various material which is available from good Islamic bookshops that may be helpful. At SIS, currently we are using the two books below.

Copies of these book can be purchased (£2.50 each) or borrowed from SIS Stepney Green Branch.

Yours sincerely

Dear Parents

Alhamdulillah, at Saturday Islamic School your child has the necessary resources that help them to do their work to a good standard. Children also have resources at home that helps them to learn and also to complete their homework.

One of the resources that we are recommending that all children aged 9 years and above have at home is a copy of the Qur'an translation in English. There are many translations of the Qur'an that are available. However, not all of them are as suitable for children. The version that we would like to recommend is The Qur'an: English translation with parallel Arabic text by M A S Abdel Haleem, published by Oxford University Press. The recommended retail price of the hardback copy is £25. SIS could make a bulk purchase and the cost will be reduced by 40%. The cost will be £15 per copy.

If you would like to purchase a copy for your child then kindly complete the slip below the return to school with the right money. It will be a good investment as your child can have this Qur'an for many years ahead, insha Allah.
